DISCUSSION:

Giftedness	15 minutes	Lori shared with the group that we are developing a process for identifying giftedness. Not an AIG program, but an integrated system for identifying student needs, differentiating work, proving in depth thinking and doing so through enrichment plans under the MTSS model. Goal is to have a rough draft of the process in place with a group in the spring. Social/Emotional- we will be working with teachers, counselor and school psychologist to make sure these students have an outlet of support Concerns over the giftedness label and how that can have a positive/negative impact with students individually and the perception of students as a whole, so being careful with how we do this. Jenny shared that she is thrilled with individualized education this year! Elaine shared her appreciation of the investment in children at the school. Discussion over continuing to handle students in the way that we do that the risk of "labeling."
Movies in the classroom	10 minutes	Types of movies in classroom, not necessarily educationally focuses. Intensity, fear-factor, and timing concerns. Choice of movie selection. Discussion over had it been brought back to the teachers. Lunch time, indoor "recess," etc.

		concerns. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Morning care is a huge element - Class content PPRC will be discussing- it on today's meeting agenda. We will be looking at guidelines for Morning Care and procedures for showing movies in the classroom (core content, etc.) as well as "survival mode." Reminder that the "fall back" can certainly be media sometimes, but not all the time. PCN wants to be clear that they completely trust teachers to make these calls, they were just curious about the process for ensuring curricular connections, etc..
Gen-X	15 minutes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Some families concerned over school addressing concern. - Discussion over research that members have done. RO system pros and cons. CFPUA shows that it is getting better, but still not meeting minimum standards. - Discussion over children being able to bring in multiple bottles of water. - Suggestion: Share that this is what we are doing now, here are suggestions for families. - Help families understand that it is more than just - Funding, county says it is safe, if families disagree it is personal responsibility (example: eating organic food), likely cost replacing the water fountain in addition to filters. - Kathy shared that water fountains on sinks had to be removed. Action: Kelly and Elaine will craft an email for families.
Fundraising Snapshot	10 minutes	Discussion over the document Jenny and Angela created- looks great, thank you! It is four pages long, so if parents are filling like we fundraise a lot, it is because we do.

		Discussed the need to re-categorize: Fundraising Events, Social/Community Give Back events, Other Fundraisers... Title: Opportunities to Support CFCI Committee will take another look and give feedback to Jenny on the document.
Supply/School Pak update	10 minutes	Survey went out, getting feedback. Angela and Lori will touch base with Sandy this month to see the results.
General Updates from members	15 minutes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - K-3 Fence Update- Kathy Coke joined us, shared that we have covered rebar/temporary fix. The job is bigger than a simple fence. Kathy shared that if you know someone who is willing to give a bid to have them contact Kathy Coke- kcoke@cfci.net. Kelly has some contacts she will reach out to and direct them to Kathy. - Dress Code questions/concerns- Talked about the nature of dress codes often being geared towards females and being able to address those concerns without hurting their body image. PCN feels teaching an understanding of rules being in place for a reason and that this has nothing to do with bodies, distractions, etc. is important. If parents have concerns and have alternative solutions, Mrs. Roy is absolutely open to hearing them. - Hot Lunch revisit- Discussed similar logistical and commitment concerns as last month's meeting. PCN let the
